

OUR 2018 HONOREE, JULIETTE OKOTE-EBOH, IS BEING INTERVIEWED BY THE FOLLOWING YOUNG LEADERS, SUPPORTED BY TWO CRITICAL PROGRAMS IN THE DETROIT AREA.

The New Foster Care is a non-profit organization based in Southeast Michigan that exists to increase awareness and make a measurable impact on the foster care system through collaboration and connection. TNFC works with faith-based organizations and the community to serve youth who are transitioning out of foster care, provide supports to foster and adoptive families and services to families at-risk before foster care is necessary. It fills gaps, develops permanent relationships and creates positive changes in the foster care system, serving over 1,400 people in 2018.

<http://thenewfostercare.org/>

Contact: Khadija Walker Fobbs, Executive Director, kfobbs@thenewfostercare.org

The New Foster Care is Supporting These Rising Interviewers:

Arielle Duncan, current Wayne State University freshman

Markita Terry, recent Wayne State University graduate

Justin, Southfield Regional Academic High School, Grade 11

The Hazel Park Promise Zone and College Access Network is committed to revitalizing the Hazel Park community by increasing its educational attainment and making it an attractive destination for families. We do this by offering a tuition-free path to an associate's degree to resident graduates of Hazel Park Schools and by recruiting and providing college and career preparatory programs to support Hazel Park students.

<http://www.hazelparkpromise.com/>

Contact: Kayla Roney Smith, Executive Director, kayla.roney@hazelparkschools.org

The Hazel Park Promise Zone and College Access Network is Supporting These Rising Interviewers:

Alaiya Barnes, Hazel Park Advantage Alternative School, Grade 11

Alexandria Cessna, Hazel Park High School, Grade 12