

One in five kids have special health care needs. These include physical, developmental, behavioral, or emotional conditions that require long-term treatment beyond what most kids need.

Kids might be living with:

- Asthma
- Autism
- Cerebral palsy
- Epilepsy
- Genetic disorders
- Type 1 diabetes
- Etc.

Almost half of these kiddos are covered by Medicaid.

#MedicaidMattersforMIKids!

<https://ccf.georgetown.edu/2025/03/24/medicaid-helps-families-of-children-and-youth-with-special-health-care-needs/>

Michigan's Children